TECHNION- ISRAEL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Constitution and Bylaws of the Technion- Israel Institute of Technology

Adopted by the Board of Governors of the Technion at its meeting of April 1953 and amended by the Board of Governors up to and including June 2019.

C O N S T I T U T I O N

WHEREAS the idea of founding an Institute in the city of Haifa for the technical training of Jewish youth in the Land of Israel was conceived by distinguished Jews and generous philanthropists,

AND WHEREAS the fulfillment of this idea was initiated in 1912 and in that same year the foundation stone was laid for the buildings to serve as a College for Technological Sciences at the University level and as a Technical Secondary School,

AND WHEREAS the construction work was interrupted during the First World War, and in the year 1920 the Zionist Organization assumed the responsibility for completion of the construction and for preparing courses of studies to be given in the Institute,

AND WHEREAS studies began in the Institute in 1924 and developed in the following years,

AND WHEREAS these activities were explicitly approved by resolution of the 17th Zionist Congress in 1931,

AND WHEREAS these activities continued to be carried on in the State of Israel since its establishment in the year 1948 until today,

AND WHEREAS pursuant to the Ottoman Law of Societies, the Institute was registered as a Society with the District Commissioner of Haifa on the 2nd day of January 1940, under the name "Ha Technion HaIvri b'Haifa" and the name of said Society was changed, on the 23rd day of April 1953, to: "Ha Technion, Machon Technologi Le Israel" - In English: "Technion - Israel Institute of Technology" - (Hereinafter referred to as "the Technion"),

AND WHEREAS the Technion was recognized as an Institute for Higher Education on August 23, 1962, pursuant to the Law of the Council for Higher Education of 1958 and henceforth became a corporation (hereinafter referred to also as "the Corporation" or "the Institute" or "the Technion")

AND WHEREAS the Technion Council at its meeting of November 25, 1981 decided to terminate the activities of the Ottoman Society, and transfer all its rights and duties to the Corporation and apply the Technion's Constitution and Bylaws to the said Corporation;

THEREFORE THE FOLLOWING SHALL BE THE CONSTITUTION OF THE INSTITUTE:

1 NAME AND LOCATION:

The name of the Institute is:

Ha Technion - Machon Technologi Le Israel

and in English:

Technion - Israel Institute of Technology

located at Technion City, in the City of Haifa, State of Israel.

2 THE OBJECTIVES OF THE INSTITUTE

The Objectives of the Institute are:

2.1 To disseminate knowledge through teaching and the advancement of research in pure and applied Science, Engineering, Architecture, Technology, Medicine and related activities including the Humanities, Social Science and Education.

2.2 To impart to its students a broad general education;

2.3 To serve the State of Israel and its economy with counsel, research and other appropriate means, and to serve the people of Israel by the provision of sets of courses and lectures, the publication of books and by similar activities in the areas specified above.

2.4 The Institute shall pursue these objectives without discrimination against any person on the grounds of race, religion, nationality or gender.

3 LEGAL POWERS

3.1 The Institute shall have all the legal powers of a recognized Institute for Higher Education, in accordance with the Law of the Council for Higher Education of 1958, and all the legal powers of a registered Society under the laws of the State of Israel, including powers to sue and to be sued, purchase and hold assets and surrender them, to enter into contracts, and be a party in any kind of legal or other negotiation.

2 ALTERNATE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

The Board may appoint Alternates for members who do not reside in Israel.

3 THE NUMBER OF BOARD MEMBERS

The Board may increase or decrease the number of its members by lowering or raising the number of members appointed by the Board as mentioned above or by adding representatives or in any other way. The number of members of the Board shall not exceed 300 (not including honorary and Alternate members) with residents of Israel forming a majority of its members. (2005)

4 TERM OF OFFICE OF BOARD MEMBERS

- 4.1 The ex-officio members will be members of the Board as long as they are in office.
- 4.2 The term of office of the appointed representatives will continue until the body that appointed them appoints a successor in their place, and in any case will not exceed 3 years, subject to possible extensions for up to 3 years at a time. If at the expiration of the term of office of an appointed representative of the Board a successor was not appointed in his place, the same representative will continue to serve on the Board until a successor is appointed, but for no more than 6 months after the expiration of his original term.

- 4.3 The term of office of the elected academic members will be up to 3 years at a time, with possible extensions, provided a continuous term of office will not exceed 6 years.
- 4.4 The term of office of the public representatives (residents and non-residents of the State of Israel) elected by the Board will be 3 years with possible extensions of up to 3 years at a time.
- 4.5 For the purpose of sections 4.2, 4.3, 4.4 above, a “year” means the period from the end of a Board session (the first year is counted from the Board session at which the member was elected) to the end of the next Board session, approximately a year later or at the nearest time. As for members elected/appointed in between Board sessions the provisions of Section 8 below will apply.

5 TERMINATION OF OFFICE ON THE BOARD

- 5.1 The Term of Office of members on the Board will expire;
  - 5.1.1 Upon the end of the member's term of office;
  - 5.1.2 Upon the death of the member;
  - 5.1.3 Upon the member's resignation from the Board; written notice of resignation will be delivered to the Chairman of the Board and will become effective 30 days after delivery;
  - 5.1.4 Upon the termination of the member's office on the Board as set forth in section 5.2 henceforth.
- 5.2 Premature Termination of Office

The Council may, pursuant to the proposal of the Chairman of the Board or the Chairman of the Council or 10 members of the Board, decide to terminate the membership of a member of the Board for any of the following reasons:

  - 5.2.1 The member has acted contrary to the Institute Constitution and Bylaws;
  - 5.2.2 The member has acted contrary to the decisions of the Board or the Council;
  - 5.2.3 The member has been declared legally incapacitated or bankrupt;
  - 5.2.4 The member has been convicted by final court judgement of a crime that, in the Council's opinion, requires the premature termination of his term.

The Council will not decide to terminate the membership of a Board member pursuant to this section unless the member has been given due opportunity to voice his claims before the Council. The Council will not consider a request for premature termination of a member's term of office pursuant the above sections 5.2.1 and 5.2.2 unless the member has been given an appropriate warning and reasonable time to correct the breach.

6 FILLING OF A VACANCY ON THE BOARD

Any vacancy occurring due to death, resignation, or any other reason shall be filled as soon as possible by the body which appointed the representative whose place became vacant or by the Board as the case may be.

7 ELECTION OF PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVES TO THE BOARD

The public representatives of the Board will be elected by the Board upon the recommendation of a search committee composed of 5 members. The search committee will be headed by the Chairman of the Board. Three members will be appointed by the Board from among the public representatives of the Board, and an additional member will be appointed from among the Professors' representatives on the Board. The term of office of the members of the Search Committee will be three years, subject to their continuous membership on the Board and can be extended to additional periods.

The Committee shall conduct its discussions and reach its decisions with at least 3 members attending (a legal quorum), of whom at least one is the Professors' representative. The Committee will submit its recommendations for the approval of the Board. The order of business of the Committee shall be determined by the Council in a special procedure. (2004; 2005; 2009; 2012)

The addition of members and Alternate members to the Board, according to the Bylaws, will be valid upon the consent of three quarters of the Board members present and voting.

8 APPOINTMENT/ELECTION OF MEMBERS BETWEEN SESSIONS OF THE BOARD

(1995) The Senate shall determine the procedures of appointment, powers and areas of operation of the Technion Deans, the Deans of Schools and the Heads of the Academic Units.

Chapter V – SENIOR OFFICE HOLDERS

31 THE PRESIDENT

At the termination of the term of office of the first President of the Institute, Rav-Aluf Yaakov Dori, the President shall be appointed, from time to time, by the Council, after consultation with the Academic Assembly and subject to ratification by the Board, as specified below:

31.1 Appointment

The President shall be a citizen and resident of the State of Israel. The President will be employed by the Technion in a full-time capacity and the Technion will be his sole place of employment.

31.1.1 Presidential Appointment Committee

A search committee will be charged with choosing a candidate for the office of Technion President. The search committee will comprise of seven members: the Chairman of the Board who will serve as chairman of the committee, the Chairman of the Council who will serve as acting chairman of the committee, two public representatives members of the Board to be appointed by the Chairman of the Board, and three members of the Academic Assembly to be elected by the Academic Assembly.

The term of office of the committee members (with the exception of the Chairman of the Board and the Chairman of the Council who are ex-officio members) shall be until a new committee is established about a year prior to the President's completion of his term of office or immediately upon his termination of office. The public representatives members of the Board and members of the Academic Assembly may be appointed or elected for two consecutive terms on the committee and will not be eligible to be appointed or elected to the new committee to be established afterwards. In case of a vacancy on the committee a new member shall be appointed or elected, as appropriate, for a period that shall not exceed the original term of office. (2022).

The committee's order of business shall be determined by the Council in a special procedure. (2012)

31.1.2 Appointment Procedures

1. The Presidential Appointment Committee will submit its recommendations to the Academic Assembly for consultation.
2. The recommendation of the Presidential Appointment Committee and the (numerical) results of the consultation with the Academic Assembly will be brought before the Council for its resolution, which is subject to ratification by the Board.

3. Should the Board ratify the appointment, the Chairman of the Board will issue the appointment of the President to office.
4. Should the Council not approve the recommendation of the Presidential Appointment Committee, or if the Board does not ratify the resolution of the Council, the Committee will be convened and will restart the procedures in accordance with this section.

31.2 Term of Office

The President will be appointed for a 4 year term or for shorter terms, as long as his total term of office will not exceed 8 years. However, upon a request signed by at least two thirds of the voting members of the Academic Assembly, or at least two thirds of the Council members, the Presidential Appointment Committee may consider, once only, his renewed candidacy for President. It will then be possible to appoint him, in accordance with the above procedure, for another, and final, term that will not exceed 4 years.

31.3 Termination of Office

In this section: “President” means also “Acting President”

31.3.1 Procedure of Termination of Office

The procedure for the termination of office will be carried out by the Presidential Appointment Committee. It will be initiated upon request in writing to the Presidential Appointment Committee, signed by at least half of the voting members of the Academic Assembly or by at least half of all Council members. The committee will discuss the request and its detailed recommendation (whether affirmative or negative) will be brought before the Academic Assembly for consultation (by secret ballot and without any discussion). The recommendation of the Presidential Appointment Committee and the results of the consultation with the Academic Assembly will be brought before the Council for a (secret) ballot, after hearing the President.

31.3.2 Termination of office

Should an ordinary majority of current Council members decide to terminate the President's term of office, the recommendation of the Presidential Appointment Committee, the results of the consultation with the Academic Assembly and the results of the Council's vote will be presented to the Board, which may, by a simple majority, ratify the Council's resolution regarding the termination of the President's term of office. Upon ratification by the Board, the President's term of office shall be terminated. (2019)

31.4 Acting President

Should the Council decide that President is unable to carry out his duties for a period exceeding 30 days, the Chairman of the Board will appoint an Acting President, after consultation with the Council and with the Steering Committee of the Senate. The Acting President will fulfill the duties of the President, and will be given all the powers of the President, excluding termination of appointments of all Technion officers. The appointment will be for a period not exceeding one year, and will end with the return of the President to his duties or with the appointment of a new President in accordance with the procedure specified above.

32 POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT

32.1 Conduct of the Institute's Affairs

To conduct all the affairs of the Institute in accordance with the Constitution, Bylaws and Regulations and the decisions of the competent authorities of the Institute, and within this framework to carry out all activities that he deems necessary or useful for the orderly management of the Institute, its development and the protection of its interests.

The President will conduct the above affairs, inter alia, with the assistance of the Technion management composed of the President, The Executive Vice Presidents and the Vice President for Resource Development and Public Relations (Henceforth – "the Management"). The President will summarize the discussions and the resolutions of the Management and his opinion will be the overruling one in formulating the resolutions. The President may, at his discretion, invite additional officials to the Management meetings. (2004)

In this section, "continuous term of office" shall mean an active term of office starting at the first term of office or at the end of a break of two or more years – the later of the two.

33.4 Acting Executive Vice President

In the absence of an Executive Vice President, the President will fill his duties or will appoint one of the Executive Vice Presidents as acting Executive Vice President.

33.5 Expiration of Appointment

A valid term of office of a Executive Vice President will expire with the nomination of a new President unless it has otherwise been agreed upon between the incoming President and the Executive Vice President.

33.6 Premature Termination of Office

Termination of office of an Executive Vice President will be carried out by the Presidential Appointment Committee according to one of the two options below:

33.6.1 Upon a written request by the President to the Committee. The Committee will conduct a hearing on the subject and its detailed recommendation (positive or negative) will be presented to the President who will decide on the matter and his decision will be final. A report of this decision will be presented to the Council.

33.6.2 Upon a written request signed by at least half of all members of the Senate or by at least half of all members of the Council to the Committee. The Committee will conduct a hearing on the subject and its detailed recommendation (positive or negative) will be presented to the Senate and to the Council for consultation (by secret ballot and without any discussion). The results of the consultations will be presented to the President who will decide in the matter and his decision will be final.

34.1 General

Vice Presidents will be responsible for the following areas: External relations and resource development, academic development and long-term planning. The number of Vice Presidents shall not exceed two. The Vice Presidents will be responsible to the President.
